From Mrs Busari

Welcome back to school, I hope that you all had a lovely half term break. We have another action-packed term this time, starting to think about the build-up to Christmas. This is always a fun term in school with all of that excitement.

We have our next round of open days coming up on Wednesday 8th November at 2pm. Please spread the word with friends, families and neighbours so that they can book in to come and have a look around our school.

Clubs resume again this week and will run throughout November. We have put some of the key dates at the top of the newsletter for this term to help you plan ahead. In the coming weeks the team will be starting to plan for the Christmas play. Children with spoken parts will be bringing home their scripts, please could you support them with learning their lines.

I hope you have a lovely first week back in school, I look forward to seeing you on the playground.

With best wishes,

Mrs Jude Busari
